

2011 Gyeonggi Cricket League (GCL)

Overview

Based on the following format and available schedule, teams will play four pool games. Finalists may play six games including semifinals, finals and placing playoffs.

When a second ground is secured, further games will be included. Teams on the waiting list will be included in any extension of the initial format and schedule. Priority will be given to teams on the waiting list that paid fees in full before the deadline.

All GCL games will be played under the amended 2011 Gyeonggi Cricket League Match Rules. Please make sure you carefully read and understand the amended Match Rules.

2011 Format

a) New Structure:

- Two Divisions consisting of Division 1 and Division 2.
- Division 1 consisting of six teams based on highest ranking from 2010 season.
- Division 2 consisting of five teams based on ranking from 2010 season. (expanded to 7 when ground confirmed)
- Any new club teams automatically receive the lowest rankings and therefore will be placed in Division 2.

b) Each team to play a minimum of 4 pool games. (Based on confirmation of SKKU ground and plan to secure second ground)

c) Playoffs (semifinals and finals) are straight knockout format. Playoffs will follow the completion of pool play.

d) Rankings for 2012 will be based on playoff placing for teams 1-4 with the remaining teams ranked based on GCL Table position.

e) New Promotion/Relegation:

- Division 1 last place = Relegated to Division 2
- Division 2 (GCL Plate Champions) = Promotion to Division 1
